George, Keyonte	Out of State Prep	1/2	1+	Keyonte is one of those special players that have all the tools of an NBA talent. He is a gifted scorer who comes off the dribble to rise up against his competition and hit the soft mid-range jumper. He is effortless when breaking down his defender and getting the ball to the basket. He finishes over and around the defense with the body control to avoid contact. When he has the ball on his hands, he is a threat to shoot it with deep range, take to the hole or give the ball up to a cutting teammate on their way to the basket. A natural scorer, he plays off the ball but can/will make decisions to set up plays in the half- court. The biggest question has been how much does he want to defend? Well, we believe that has been answered with his ability to play hard on the perimeter and make things happen by applying pressure. He has also shown the willingness to dive on the floor and to get the ball up the court to a teammate to show his unselfish side as a basketball player.	6'04	Baylor

Wallace, Cason	Richardson	1	1+	Cason has made his case that he should be mentioned as one of the top players in the class and in the Nation. The explosive nature in which the Richardson high prospect plays is hard to match as he can breakdown down any opponent with his shifty ballhandling skills and his burst to the basket. Cason can rise up and finish or simply pull up for a mid- range jumper. Cason plays fast and his eyes scan the court looking for his open teammate or where the open lane is for him to score. He is a scoring point guard who creates for him or his teammates and makes everyone around him better. If you want one of the top on-ball defenders, then you have found your man in Cason. He harasses the ball and comes up with steals that lead to easy buckets in transition.		Kentucky
